THE OPPORTUNITY

This unique opportunity will appeal to someone who has an extensive leadership background in building an organizational and workforce baseline in support of restructuring, leads UKG Ready implementation, runs the performance and engagement cycles, and gives managers practical, defensible employee relations support.

The role exists to ensure that NND's structure, staffing and people processes are accurate, data-driven and consistently applied, so that departments can deliver services to citizens with the right people, in the right roles, using reliable systems. The role works independently within delegated authority, escalates high-risk matters promptly, and conducts all work with respect for the culture, values, traditions and self-governing authority of the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyäk Dun.

THE PERSON

You will achieve results by encouraging and supporting the contributions of others and lead by example. We are looking for someone who will demonstrate a solid commitment to and respect for the spirit and core values of the FNNND organization, setting an example of professionalism and ethical behaviours. People development is a key role in this position through coaching, mentoring, managing performance with a genuine desire to help others success.

QUALIFICATIONS

The required education and training are bachelor's degree or diploma in Human Resources Management, Business Administration, Organizational Development or a related field. Minimum five (5) years of progressive, hands-on HR experience as an HRBP, HR Manager, HR Generalist, OD specialist or comparable. Demonstrated experience with organizational restructuring, org-chart development, position inventories and workforce planning. Knowledge of Yukon First Nations and FNNND history, culture, traditional territory demographics is an asset.

ANNUAL SALARY RANGE: $ 96, 147.20.00 - $ 139, 924.27.00 per annum. The FNNND offers a competitive benefits package including shared pension contributions, extended health, and dental plan. Subsidized housing is available for this position.
