

“Here Today, Gone to Mayo”

Join Patti Balsillie & her tourism colleagues for Tourism Conversations hosted by NNDFN – designing the tourism experience we want for Na-Cho Nyak Dun

Tourism Conversations with NNDFN

Tuesday, April 11 at 5:30 PM – 8:30 PM and Wednesday, April 12 8:30 A.M. – 4:30 P.M.

NND citizens, Silver Trail Tourism Association members, and community residents are invited to join the conversation and in helping NNDFN set their tourism priorities for 2017-2020 with the community, the industry and the region.

Program:

Tuesday, April 11th – Dinner, storytelling and a short film at the Mayo Community Hall. Screening of the film “Shift” about the youth of Carcross Tagish First Nation, mountain biking and tourism potential.

Wednesday, April 12th – All day workshop at NND in the Multi-Purpose.

Facilitated by Patti Balsillie (Yukon Tourism Specialist), together with Shane Wally (CTFN Trail Blazer), Shannon McNevin (Tourism Yukon), the team of Yukon First Nations Culture & Tourism, and an accomplished Wilderness Tourism Guide & Operator.

Please RSVP to Jodie Buyck

(867) 996-2265 ex. 133

OR jodie.buyck@nndfn.com

By April 7th, 2017

Cost is completely FREE!

Awesome souvenirs to take home with you!