

THE PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE

Coming to Mayo!

The Pursuit of Excellence addresses key elements of success in such a way that participants fast-track learning and integration of cornerstone concepts, attitudes & skills that distinguish successful people & leaders.

Hosted by the Nacho Nyak Dün First Nation

January 30-February 1, 2018

NNDFN Government House, Mayo, YUKON

Preregistration is required - Contact Teresa Sampson at 1.867.996.2265

14 Seats Reserved for Members of NNDFN (free tuition)

5 Seats Reserved for Northern Tutchone Members in Pelly Crossing (free tuition)

5 Seats Reserved for Northern Tutchone Members in Carmacks (free tuition)

Members of other Yukon First Nations may attend (Tuition $750) and can register through
Amanda Buffalo: 1.867.333.9960 or 1.800.399.8081

To receive a Completion Certificate, you must commit to the entire course:
9:00 am - 6:00 pm all three days.

Lay down the foundation for lifelong success, fulfillment & EXCELLENCE!

~

"The Pursuit of Excellence was a wonderful course, and I can see a world of difference that it has made for myself and a lot of our citizens. I've been recommending this course to other First Nations as well, so their people can benefit and be able to move forward." Maria Benoit, Director of Capacity Development, Carcross/Tagish First Nation

"Any journey started with teachings of the Excellence Series is a journey to be remembered and cherished." Eric Morris, Teslin Tlingit First Nation