

The Village of MAYO
Est. 1903

INYE DOHOHT'I?

"How are you?" in Northern Tutchone.

We call ourselves Nacho Nyak Dun, which we have come to translate as "Big River People". However, our Elders have a more intrinsic meaning which is, "the people who come from the rivers of our ancestors".

If you have a question, please ask any one of our citizens. We are a friendly community.

