Nancy Hager

My parents are Julius Hager and Lizzy Hall from Mayo. My grandparents Edwin and Mary Hager brought me up after Julius my dad got polio in 52. Nancy is part of the Crow clan. Persis and Julius Kendi are my great grandparents going back as far as 1853. Julius Kendi was a Anglican minister to Old Crow and Mayo area.

Nancy went to J.V. Clark high school till grade 10 then moved onto ST. Ann s Academy in Victoria, B.C. then graduated in 1971. Nancy also took Native Cultural Art Instructor in 2008/9 and graduated with honors from Portage College in Lac a Biche, AB. She continued on and took the last year as Artisan Entrepreneurship Diploma in 2017/8 and graduated.

Nancy s involvement politically for 27 years as; NND secretary, NND Community Education Liaison Coordinator, NND Training Coordinator, NND Crow Councillor, Language and Culture Coordinator, NND Liaison with Kiewit and Son, NND Employment, Training, and Community Economics Development Liaison with Alexco Resources, Binet House Supervisor, NND Deputy Chief, and NND Acting Chief.

Nancy also involved in Land Claims since early '86 working towards Self Government which NND achieved in 1995. She sat on various committees regarding NND government and Council of Yukon First Nations working in Education, Training Policy, and Human Resource Development. Her dream is still is to have a virtual Cultural college for NND citizens, promote all our special sites and make use of them in areas of wellness, traditional trails, and education in hunting, trapping and fishing. Assist our youth to be educated in our government, work, and to be a good citizen for NND. Make lots of opportunities happen.
