

Call Out For Committee Members

Currently seeking applications for:
First Nation of Nacho Nyak Dun

COMMUNITY CONSULTATIVE GROUP

OVERVIEW

First Nation of Na-Cho Nyäk Dun (FNNND) leadership is seeking dedicated FNNND community members to serve on a newly-formed Community Consultative Group (CCG) aimed at enhancing communication and collaboration between the RCMP and the FNNND community.

We are looking for individuals who are committed to fostering positive relationships, improving public safety, and providing valuable input on FNNND policing priorities, community concerns, and public engagement.

Who Should Apply?

We are looking for diverse perspectives from FNNND community members who:

- Have a vested interest in the safety and well-being of our community
- Represent a broad range of backgrounds and experiences
- Are interested in discussing issues related to policing, crime prevention, and community engagement
- Are committed to open, respectful dialogue and working collaboratively with the RCMP

Currently seeking applications for:
First Nation of Nacho Nyak Dun

COMMUNITY CONSULTATIVE GROUP

What does the CCG do?

- Identifies and raises community policing issues/concerns with the RCMP
- Works with the RCMP to develop policing priorities, crime prevention strategies, and community engagement initiatives
- Evaluates police services and recommends improvements
- Provides input on the skills and qualities needed for RCMP officers serving our community
- Develops cross cultural training/orientation for new RCMP members.
- The CCG will meet at least four times a year and training and honorarium will be provided.

Why Get Involved?

As a member of the FNNND Community Consultative Group, you will:

- Have a direct channel for setting community priorities and sharing ideas with local RCMP
- Provide input on public safety strategies and initiatives
- Participate in regular CCG meetings and discussions with RCMP officers and fellow community members.
- Help shape the future of policing and community relations for the FNNND community.

Apply via email to Council Clerk, A/ Executive Assistant, Ellenise Profeit at execassist@nndfn.com

There is no deadline to apply.

We look forward to hearing from you and working together to build a safer and stronger FNNND community!