

First Nation of Nacho Nyak Dun Governance

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION – NND BUSINESS TRUST GOVERNANCE

Na Cho Nyäk Dun Citizens Are Encouraged to Apply

The NND Business Trust (NNDBT) is seeking qualified individuals to serve as a Trustee and Alternate Trustee and help guide the governance of the Trust.

Established to protect and grow Trust assets, the NNDBT supports prudent financial management and the Nation's long-term economic well-being. Trustees play a key role in overseeing operations, setting strategic direction, and making decisions for current and future generations.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

Serving as a Trustee is an opportunity to:

- Take an active role in self-governance and economic development
- Contribute your knowledge and experience
- Strengthen transparency and accountability
- Help guide long-term investments for NND citizens

WHO CAN APPLY?

Individuals interested in governance, business, finance, community development, or leadership are encouraged to apply. Preference is given to NND Citizens. Experience is an asset, but commitment, integrity, and willingness to learn are key.

Application Process

Interested applicants must complete the NNDBT Trustee Application Form, which includes:

- Contact information
- Responses to background and eligibility questions
- A recent resumé
- Two letters of reference (personal or professional)
- A brief explanation of interest in serving on the Trust

Applications are reviewed by the Board of Trustees and forwarded to the Protector, who appoints Trustees in accordance with the Trust Deed.

Get Involved

Participating in NND Business Trust governance helps shape the Nation's economic future and ensure it reflects NND values and priorities.

Application forms are available at:

- FNNND Government House
- NNDDC Administration Office

Application deadline: June 19, 2026

For more information, please contact:

Adrienne.hill@nndfn.com or heritagemgr@nndfn.com
867-996-2265 ext 138 or ext 133