

First Nation of Nacho Nyak Dun
Governance

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION – NND BUSINESS TRUST GOVERNANCE

Na Cho Nyäk Dun Citizens Are Encouraged to Apply

The NND Business Trust (NNDBT) is seeking interested and qualified individuals to participate in the governance of the Trust by applying to serve as a Trustee (two vacancies available). The NND Business Trust was established to protect and grow Trust assets, ensure prudent financial management, and support the long-term economic well-being of the Nation. Trustees play a vital role in overseeing Trust business, setting strategic direction, and making decisions in the best interests of current and future generations.

✓ WHY PARTICIPATE?

Serving as a Trustee is an opportunity to:

- Take an active role in self-governance and economic development
- Contribute your knowledge, experience, and perspective
- Strengthen transparency, accountability, and community trust
- Help guide investments that benefit NND citizens over the long term

✓ WHO CAN APPLY?

Anyone who are interested in governance, business, finance, community development, or leadership are encouraged to apply with preference given to NND Citizens as the books and records are required to be stored and conducted on Settlement Land. Prior board or business experience is an asset, but commitment, integrity, and willingness to learn are equally important.

Application Process

Interested applicants must complete the NNDBT Trustee Application Form, which includes:

- Basic contact information
- Responses to background and eligibility questions
- A recent résumé
- Two letters of reference (personal or professional)
- A brief explanation of interest in serving on the Trust

Applications are reviewed by the Board of Trustees and forwarded to the Protector, who appoints Trustees in accordance with the Trust Deed.

Get Involved

Participating in the governance of the NND Business Trust is one way to help shape the future of the Nation's economic initiatives and ensure they reflect NND values and priorities.

Application forms are available at:

- FNNND Government House
- NNDDC Administration Office

For more information, please contact:
Ellenise at council.clerk@nndfn.com or
867 996-2265 ext. 213