The Executive Director (“ED”) reports to Council and is responsible for the effective implementation of Na-Cho Nyäk Dun ("NND") Laws, Acts and policies. The ED is responsible for the functioning of the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyäk Dun ("FNNND") government, including FNNND administration and programs to reflect the priorities of the NND government.

The ED receives political and policy direction from the Council and the Assembly. They are expected to make financial, operational, human resources, and administrative decisions within that general direction and priorities set by the Council. In doing so, the ED takes the lead in developing new practices and procedures, and devising new courses of action, systems, and program initiatives.

The decisions made and direction provided by the ED have a significant impact on the organization and the nation. They are responsible for ensuring direction, goals and objectives are met through effective supervision and leadership. The ED has full accountability for the effectiveness of day-to-day operation of the organization and must ensure activities meet the requirements of relevant legislation, regulations, and policies.
